

I don't think the FCC should interfere with the laws of the State. I am glad they enacted a law that can give us the right to not have telemarket call. It is nice to be able to sit down to a meal without the phone ringing. Do not try to fix what is not broken. Leave our laws along.